

Gisterhood Gleanings

Outreach Program

- Facilitator's Guide
- Student Empowerment Worksheets

Chapter 22

The Olive House Infiltration

1. Chapter Overview

The Sisterhood Sleuths infiltrate the Olive House under cover of darkness, discovering The Society's plans to amplify the Eye's power across Upland. The decrepit mansion hides more than dust and decay—it conceals a pristine basement filled with blueprints, coded documents, and a glowing casket tied to the Eye. The team's infiltration turns chaotic when they're ambushed. A fierce battle erupts, and Seraphine sacrifices herself to ensure the team's escape, mirroring Einar's earlier courage. Chloe and her team escape through a hidden tunnel, carrying the casket and the burden of loss, determined to fight another day.

2. Core Life Lessons

- Bravery often means stepping into fear and uncertainty.
- Sacrifice is the truest form of leadership.
- Teamwork can turn chaos into survival.
- Every mission requires trust, timing, and courage.

3. Character Focus

Chloe – Takes command under extreme pressure.

Seraphine – Embodies courage through self-sacrifice.

Yuki – A strategist and fighter who uses logic and instinct.

Gil – Grounded and protective; prioritizes the team's survival.

Lily – The moral heart of the group, guiding them with empathy.

4. Learning Discussion Prompts

What motivates Seraphine to make her sacrifice?

How does fear shape the team's decisions during the infiltration?

What does the Olive House symbolize in this chapter?

How can courage and strategy work together under pressure?

What lessons about leadership emerge from this mission?

5. Connection to Real Life

Students can connect this scene to real-world moments when courage, teamwork, or strategy was needed to overcome danger or challenge. The chapter highlights moral bravery, planning under pressure, and how leadership means protecting others even when afraid.

6. Suggested Activities

Mission Planning Game: In groups, create a short strategy plan for safely retrieving an object under time pressure.

Escape Map Design: Sketch a secret passage and label how teamwork would be required to use it effectively.

Bravery Collage: Collect images or words that represent courage, sacrifice, and leadership.

Reflection Journal: Write about a time you stood up for what was right, even when afraid.

7. Song Connection

Song: Silent Canvas

Encourage students to discuss what makes courage different from recklessness.

Emphasize how selflessness and teamwork transform fear into strength. Guide reflection on Seraphine's sacrifice as both a loss and a legacy of bravery.

Student Worksheet – Ages 10–12

Writing / Reflection

1. What did the team find inside the Olive House?
2. How did Seraphine help them escape safely?

Multiple Choice / Quick Response

- Who led the team inside the Olive House? (a) Chloe
- What did the glowing casket contain? (b) A part of the Eye
- Who stayed behind to protect the others? (c) Seraphine

Puzzle / Cipher Exercise

Unscramble: E A R G U O C (Hint: What Seraphine showed in this chapter.)
→ COURAGE.

Song Connection

‘Truth paints its colors in silence.’ — Silent Canvas
When have you seen someone show courage, even when scared?

Student Worksheet – Ages 13–15

Writing / Reflection

1. Why was Seraphine's decision important to the team's success?
2. How does her courage inspire the others?

Multiple Choice / Quick Response

- Why did the team infiltrate the Olive House? (a) To find The Society's plans
- What did the basement reveal? (b) A hidden casket tied to the Eye
- Why did Seraphine stay behind? (c) To buy time for the team to escape

Puzzle / Cipher Exercise

Cipher (A=1): 19-1-3-18-9-6-9-3-5
→ SACRIFICE. What does this word mean to you?

Song Connection

'Truth paints its colors in silence.' — Silent Canvas
Describe how teamwork helped the group survive.
How can trust make difficult moments easier?

Student Worksheet – Ages 16–18

Writing / Reflection

1. Analyze Seraphine’s sacrifice in terms of ethical leadership.
2. Was her choice purely strategic, or was it moral?

Multiple Choice / Quick Response

- What does the Olive House represent symbolically? (a) Secrets and illusion
- What drives Seraphine’s actions? (b) Protecting the team and completing the mission
- How does the chapter redefine bravery? (c) As intelligent selflessness, not reckless risk

Puzzle / Cipher Exercise

Riddle Cipher: 'What remains even when sound and color fade?'
→ COURAGE. How does this reflect the title Silent Canvas?

Song Connection

‘Truth paints its colors in silence.’ — Silent Canvas

How do silence and action work together to reveal true strength in leadership?

The song reflects the quiet strength and sacrifice at the heart of this chapter—showing that even in the stillness of loss, courage paints a brighter future.

